My dear Mr. May,

In the hope of having a copy of the Ann. Rep. Anti-S. Report in time for the mail post, I write a few lines to inclose with it. You perceive we are still in this busy city; I have been once or twice to Bristol, but we do not mean to return home until to-day next Monday week.

I have ordered 500 copies of the A.S. Report. It is too valuable a document to be lost sight of.

Stuart & Garrison will reply to Mr. Grant's article in the "M. Advertiser" of Monday last June 30th? I have just been talking with Mr. G. on the subject, and concurring to it his views. Previously I had written to him privately, & Mr. Webb has written an excellent letter which will appear to-day to-morrow in the

MS. B. 16 v 114 P. 36 published in the Am. Cour. I expect Aug. will eventually be all right, but you can hardly conceive how the cry of irreligion on the army the Am. Cabals, intrigues, & every step, all effort to enlist sympathy in favour of you Sir? Poor Brown is quite dispirited: yesterday only he can telling us how some recent language of W. Wright to you had just been quoted to him ~~in print~~ by old Mr. Ham English hostile ~~doing~~ something to do with the "Amer. U.S. Sir", let Mr. Grant' Office I met Mr. Owen the gentleman who had courage to stand forward the U.S. Reader & the Congress Union in London, when Rev. Mr. Clackering, shunned the Eleven fort. Mr. O. soon however detected the nature of his Cadis Envy. I had the reasons of ~~trying~~ to dost Mr. Owen right as to Louis Napoleon's not being the 1st Pres. U.S. guide, nor the

"Am. & For. A. S. Soc." the more it should organize & act. Scholars can do but little dirty work, & it is impossible to remain the impassive lever. Hear his reply to an inquiry about the Am. & For. S. Soc.

"When there is one Abolt. paper in the U.S that advocates the Am. & S.S. there are ten which sustain the movement of the Am. & For. A.S.S. — where ten really read the "Am. A.S.Soc." hundreds are attached to the Am. & Foreign A.S.Soc."

Last night we had a delightful party at Mrs Martineau's, (or rather at Mrs Reid's who entertained the company;) there were all the Barnes's & Webb, Mrs Wedgwood, (daughter Macintosh) And &c. In the morning our party, joined by Mr. Webb, made an in-cursion on our Barnes's friends, & then a delightful hour or two with Mrs.
Webb left to-day for Dublin. Annie Chapman has left her family to share our two weeks

Salisbury with her friend Miss Carter before they come to Bristol.

I have heard from the Parents of the Ladies whom the Carters are, & they are well, & "seem contented & happy." Miss Otis from the Christian & family visit Mr. Grant & his pious & Devoted Lady, & I take an help in his conversion to the right faith & friend - do not see the bearing they cannot have, as we write they did. Miss Weston with whom we so kindly & Bible, seems to think that no C.L. effort can [illegible] weaken the does not [illegible] from the first proclaim Am. C.L.S. & where the Auxiliaries & Societies rest of the Organization. When this cause followed, Mr. Webb, & Mr. Wright came, & our & the efforts of many others, we be paralyzed, & you will get nothing for the Indian Mission.
Brown & the Carters, owing to the degree in which they mixed with C.L. Bible & all amounts of Zeal & knowledge, on this point in a very correct light. Our good friend A. Peters is not Quite sensible upon it. The C.L. Bible have, cannot have such a thing for good. The Report has come just before just [illegible] Mr. Grant J. B. Lathrop
